BLACKHAWKS — Chief Blackhawk with his tribe of Sac Indians once roamed these prairies of northern Illinois, and for him our Blackhawk Street was named. He was a valiant fighter always loyal to the interests of his people. It is proper, therefore, that we, the Class of 1937, bestow upon our own valiant warriors, the athletic teams of West High School, the name of Blackhawks. May they ever maintain the highest ideals of courageous action, loyalty, and sportsmanship.

Peggy Hinton

As our student population continued to grow, so did West.

In the fall of 1953 eighty seven years of proud history moved into new, expanded quarters.

From then until now — our tenth anniversary — West Senior High has grown and changed. The constant characteristic throughout this history is the dedication to develop an educated person, a well-rounded citizen, one who will lead as capably as he will follow.

Fourteen additional rooms were completed in 1961.

"Home of the Blackhawks."

Moving into 1201 Walnut.

*Cate,
Good luck,

Sixty-two was another heart-breaker for those who looked for winning scares from the Red and Blue. But unlike Mudville, there was joy in the hearts of the Blockhows, because they had a team to be proud of. They remember the tough Auburn Hamecaming game and the disheartening East-West game. But they also remember the East Rackford game, when West gave the big team a surprise, held their own, and came out with a state rating. What made them a great team was that they gave and gave as much as they could, and never let up. This fighting spirit was noticed by others in the Big-Eight, too, Captain Dave Petree and Ron Gabbett were named All-Conference guard and tackle, and tackle Buddy Reedy received honorable mention. If Captain-elect Bob Kellett's team, including twelve experienced varsity lettermen, can hold onto half the spirit of this year's team, nothing should stop them!

INJURIES HOLD BACK HAWKLET SQUAD

The significant factor for the unsuccessful sophomore season was the amazing amount of injuries. These were seldom serious, but managed to keep players out for two or three weeks at a time.

"The only game when we really had full force," said Coach Wallbaum, "was the East-West game, when the Hawklets tied 2nd place East 6-6." There were many games where a few minutes could have made a difference in the end result: the Auburn and Freeport games for example. The sophs have shown strong possibilities, and it is hoped that they will be back full force on the varsity team in sixty-three.

HEIGHTENED ENTHUSIASM FOR CROSS COUNTRY

The second cross country season brought with it a show of maturity for Coach Gleasmon's squad. With a great deal more interest, spurred by last year's successful season, the team had over twice as many participants. Because of this enthusiasm toward cross country, West captured several more victories over last year's squad. High point of the season for both sophomore and varsity was the win over Morris Community High School during which the sophomore team, captained by Jim Hauser, took the first five places. The varsity, captained by Walt Pennington, followed through as Morris succumbed to West 25 to 34. Perhaps it should be noted that the team with the lowest score wins. With the first five continuous place winners for West being juniors the outlook for another fine season seems good.

MATMEN LEAVE IMPRESSIVE RECORD

Wrestling's popularity is on the increase here at West.

Our matmen entered the Big Eight Conference meet with a 5-7 record and secured 2nd. place behind a tough East High team. At the District meet, our grapplers walked off with the championship.

In competition at the Sectional, Ron Gabbett placed 2nd, Paul Reedy and Jerry Connor placed 3rd, and Dan Sjastrand took 4th.

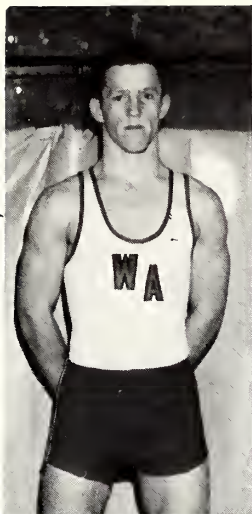

There were several impressive records compiled during the season; most notable of which was that of Gabbett's — 21-1-1.

Absentee: Bill Page.

For the second consecutive year interest among sophomores in wrestling has been great enough to warrant the formation of a Howklet squad. Coached by Mr. Richard Zuege, the young matmen learned the technique of this sport which pits individual against individual. The value of this training and experience during the sophomore year has proven itself in the caliber of competition at the varsity level.

Concluding their season with a 3—win 5—loss record, the novices displayed considerable growth in their knowledge of the sport. This knowledge will serve them well as they graduate to the varsity ranks.

Typifying sophomore spirit is Bert Bennett as he pins an opponent.

A nemesis, plaguing the varsity squads since the late 50's, fashioned another rough season. An overall glance at the 62-63 chapter fails to reflect the countless hours of sacrifice poured into each contest. Hours of practice, that came before school and after school with drills — offensive, defensive, rebounding, shooting — that increased after each defeat, have not been totalled. Hours of tension preceded every game. And the tension increased with each week.

The rewards of competition we can all appreciate, (and sometimes envy) but the price that must, at times, be paid is an agony reserved for those who go out to meet the challenge.

A special salute is given to the man who understood better than most the spirit of West — first year varsity basketball coach Clayton Rabedaux.

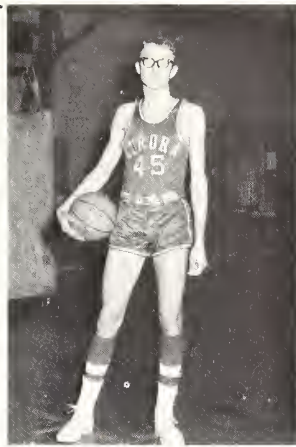

In charge of the 62-63 squad are, l. to r.: Mgrs. Steve George and Dave Muscheler Vars. and J.V. Coaches, Clayton Rabedaux and Jim Pittman; Mgr. Chuck Dittman.

Chalking up a record of seven wins against thirteen losses the Hawklets provided cage fans with a number of tense moments. Against York and also against Proviso-East the sophs crushed early game leads as great as 14 to 1 in the closing moments of contest to come within 3 points of a victory. In their meeting with Dundee the team amassed 69 points while Bob Michels scored the individual season's high of 25 points.

Coach Gordon Kirkman, new at West this year, developed a maturity and spirit of determination in his squad that will be reflected in varsity competition.

TRACKMEN IMPROVE IN '63

Gaining momentum, as Coach Lee Gleasman's track squad added enthusiasts, field events soon filled out the spring athletic picture. Running events were strong with returning lettermen Rodger Field and Skip Stolley in the mile and half mile; Ralph Voris, Jerry Connor, Joel Bronstein, and Ric MacDowell in the dashes. Ran Gabbett put his weight behind the shot along with Paul Reedy, while Jack Albright and Ray White handled pole vaulting and high jumping respectively.

GOOD LUCK PREDICTED

Building upon four returning varsity lettermen, Cooch Rod Senn set his mark of topping last year's third position in the Big-8 and number two spot in the District. From a field of 25 netmen, vying to represent West on the courts, the following line-up show the most action: Bruce Goldsmith, John Hewitt, and Tom Schaub played varsity singles; Captain

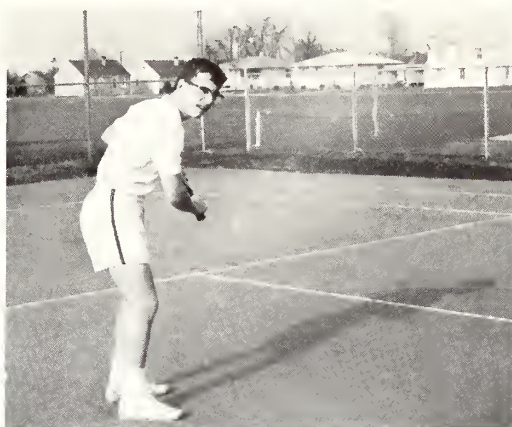

Chuck Dittman and Jerry Peterson played first doubles; Rich Krull and Bob Hagen played second doubles. The team handled sixteen dual matches, one quadrangular, the District, the State, and Big-8 matches.

Coached by Mr. Dick Dorsey, the golfers began their schedule against Elgin on April 5. Eight more matches were played, not including the Big-8, District, State, and City clashes. Midway through the season the faculty competed against the team.

Low scores went consistently to Captain Rick Jay, John Whittle, Jon Michels, Bob Michels, and Parker Pike.

Whittle, a junior, qualified in the state finals last year.

ACTIVITIES

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

MARY ANN BOTHE

Experts in world understanding — Mary Ann and Amilia.

Our part of the dual track A.F.S. program was upheld by Mary Ann Bathe who, as an American Abroad, spent the summer in Sweden.

Mary Ann lived for seven weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Sten Kjellmon, their son Anders, 19, and their daughter Ingela, 15. During this time the family made their home in Gateborg and at Hindos, a summer place nearby. Trips to Stockholm and the Kjellman's relations in other parts of Sweden enriched Mary Ann's knowledge of the language and customs. Even more significant was the awakening that our people are so similar.

Flying to Montreal, Canada, our Blockhawk ambassador boarded the S. S. Seven Seas, used by A.F.S.ers only, for her trip across the Atlantic. The 10-day voyage included study of the foreign language she would be using and explanation of the role she was about to assume as a representative of the United States in another country.

Like most travelers Mary Ann brought back a number of souvenirs, but most of all she has impressions of her charming Swedish foster family and a much larger, friendlier world.

AMALIA XANTHOULI

Amalia and her adopted sister, Sally Hickman

Amalia Xanthouli is no longer "all Greek" to the students or faculty of West High. Arriving from Rhodes, Greece in August as our third American Field Service foreign exchange student, Amalia made her home with the George Hickman family. She and her new sister had the opportunity to acquaint themselves with one another exclusively while in Michigan at the Hickman's summer place during the days before school began.

More than a little shy when she addressed the entire student body on January 9, Amalia rapidly gained her self confidence and embarked on a round of community appearances that soon exceeded in number those of her predecessors.

Football and basketball games were the things that interested our guest most; particularly the cheers and excitement that are so much a part of these activities at West. Her own participation was in A Coppello, G.A.A., Girls' Club, Paint Pot Club, and Student Council.

Under its constitution, the West High Student Council has the responsibility of providing for the general welfare of the school. With this in mind council promoted the student lounge. To encourage interest among the representatives, 23 members were sent to the first meeting of the Upstate-8 Student Council conference. By evolution of its many programs this body has sought to improve and intensify its usefulness.

For the third successive year West's speech department, guided by Mrs. Herbert Hamsher and assisted by Miss Kay Monier, hosted the third annual East-West Speech Tournament. In January, the two-day Big 8 Speech Tourney also became acquainted with West's hospitality. Additionally, debaters as well as individual events contestants participated in a seemingly endless schedule which began in early fall and ran to the end of April. Crisscrossing Northern Illinois these active students gained sophistication in their forensic endeavors.

Notable achievements included reaching quarter finals at the district tournament of the National Forensic League by Dorothy Balthazar and Patricia Martens. This team eventually tied for fifth place in competition at the state level. The Blackhawk's novice team captured the top spot at both North Chicago and Evanston tourneys.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

In order to earn membership in N.F.L., a national honorary society, each candidate must accumulate a minimum of twenty-five points by participating in three areas of forensics. These include interscholastic competition, which involves extemporaneous speaking and original oratory, as well as service speeches and debate. Annually, our chapter hosts the East-West Speech Tournament.

The main objective of the National Thespian Society is to promote secondary school dramatic activities. Troupe 2013, now four years old, is made up of people who have participated in dramatic activity on stage or on crew for a specified number of hours. Members have worked on the annual contest play, "The Sandbox," and participated in the fall and spring all-school productions. They are justifiably proud of winning first place honors for originality with the float they constructed for homecoming in conjunction with N.F.L.

Some of the cast are seen hard at work on the spring play.

In the interim between fall and spring productions, Mr. Hancock undertook the challenge of preparing one act play for competition in the Illinois High School Speech Association contest. The Sandbox won third place honors at the district tournament, and continued to the sectional where it placed sixth.

Art Committee

The underlying goal of Pep Club is not only to promote active support for our athletic teams but to create a genuine sense of unity in all school activities.

Once each week throughout the year members meet to work on the five various committees, creating original displays and signs as well as writing the unique material for pep assemblies and daily announcements.

An integral part of Pep Club is the corps of Pom Pom Girls who perform precision drills not only at assemblies but at games as well. This group, now in its third year of organization, was organized by Mrs. Thelma Maze, faculty sponsor to all Pep Club activities, who also trains the girls.

STORYBOOK SAGA

A run on books of nursery rhymes prefaced homecoming as West high students sought ideas for floats to coincide with the theme "Storybook Saga." Endless hours of stuffing chicken wire culminated in the October 12 parade past city hall led by our marching band and including the great bands of both Jefferson and Franklin Junior Highs.

Kicking off the homecoming festivities was Mother Goose herself at an 11 o'clock pep assembly where Queen Carol White and her attendants Beth Ness, Diane Holdren, Lindy Drew, and Kathy Stork were presented by Dove Petree, football captain; Kent Shell, student council president; John Peters, senior class president; Jerry Peterson, junior class president; and Bert Bennet, sophomore class president. Dismissal from class followed so that the mile long parade could be organized.

That evening, between sophomore and varsity games against Auburn or Rockford, the winning floats were announced as they passed in review through the stadium.

Homecoming 1962 danced to a close at a semi-formal entitled "Through the Looking Glass" which was attended by a number of alums as well as students who wouldn't have missed a minute of our "Storybook Saga."

Queen Carol White

Presenting Student Council checks to representatives of the organizations who created the prize-winning floats is Parade Chairman Dave Griesser. "MMM Mash Good"

"Mitchell" pulls out a victory.

Characterized throughout this fifty-second volume of the EOS is the development over the past ten years of a dynamic West Senior High. The future of our alma mater will be of constant interest to us all. Our heritage will be a point of lifelong pride.

The entire staff of the 1963 yearbook hopes that through these pages your memories of West will remain vivid. To every student and faculty member we extend our appreciation for their co-operation. Special thanks go to Mr. Hugo Peterson and Mr. Raymond Vadar, faculty advisors to the business and editorial staffs; to Walinge Studios, our class photographers; to Craftco Company, who executed our cover design; and to American Yearbook Company, the printers of our book.
